The countess inherited a large estate from her father, Major McElroy, and married Count A. De Canavarroo, the Portugese representative at Honolulu.

She had a son thirteen years old when she became in atuated with Buddhism, left nome and went to New York, where in August, 1897, she was made a disc ple of Buddna by Dharmapsla, the Buildinist priest. She went to Ceylon and entered the convent.

Two years' novitiate has been ample to open her eyes, and she has abandon-ed all ner plans for reforming the Oriental people who have been lured away from Buddhism.
